EUPHORIA RETREAT

Mystras, Greece

Euphoria is up among the pines of the Peloponnese peninsula, a javelin's throw from mythic Mystras. As its name suggests, it's a restorative retreat; one which enlists the powers of Hellenic philosophy and Chinese medicine (with a Finnish sauna and Byzantine hammam for good measure) to plot out serious wellness journeys within their four-storey spa. Meditate, get massaged, cocoon yourself in the celestial domed pool – wedded bliss is seldom this blissful.
