Four private villas to rent for luxury escape

By Bharat Bhushan June 8, 2020

Renting a villa will be in trend now more than ever. People will need to limit the number of people they come in contact with while traveling in the coronavirus era. Private villas are thus going to be higher in demand owing to their benefits of safety and seclusion.

Some of the classiest villas around the world can provide you a luxury escape with aspirational style. Following are a few private villas you can rent when you plan to travel as the lockdowns ease around the world.

Euphoria Retreat, Greece

Greece has become one of the first countries to announce plans to allow tourists in the country. The Euphoria Retreat with its six bookable bedrooms is ready to welcome guests who can enjoy spa time with family and small group of friends. A room can be booked individually or all the rooms of the villa can be book together. The 1830 Leoncini Mansion at the resort with its original wood beams and stone walls blends beautifully with the surrounding of the base of Mt. Taygetus and the ancient forest on the Peloponnesian peninsula.
